

IMHA

Independent Mental Health Advocacy Service

Who's it for?

Qualifying patients detained under the Mental Health Act* are entitled to an independent advocate.

* Exclusions apply; call your local IMHA office for details

An Independent Mental Health Advocacy service for people who need support with their rights under the new Mental Health Act.

The IMHA service is:

- Totally free
- Totally independent

When?

You are concerned about decisions being made about you, your treatment or your care.

What?

An IMHA will represent and support the person being detained.

TotalVoice

Cambridgeshire and Peterborough

0300 222 5704 Textphone 07860 018481

tvcp@voiceability.org

www.totalvoicecp.org